

November Members Meeting Recorded Video Presentation

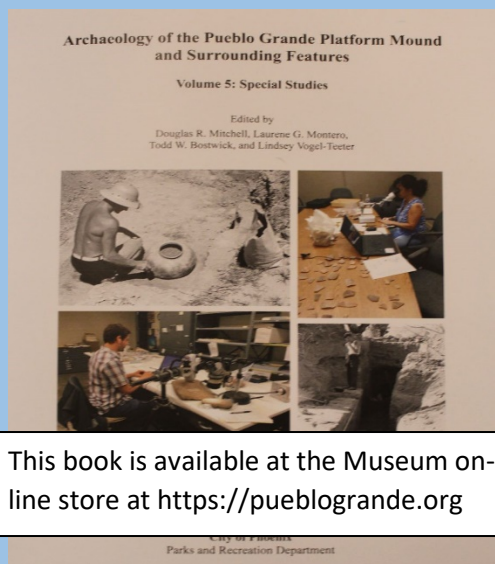

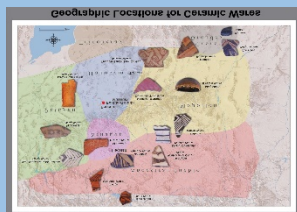

November 4, 2020 at 6:30PM

Prehistoric Long-Distance Interactions: Non-local Pottery from Pueblo Grande

By

Laure Montero

City Archaeologist for Phoenix

This book is available at the Museum on-line store at <https://pueblogrande.org>

1Tanque Verde Red on Brown

Laurene Montero received her M.A. in Anthropology from Arizona State University in 1989 and has been a professional archaeologist in Arizona since then. In her role as City Archaeologist for Phoenix (since 2011), Laurene conducts archaeological research and assists project proponents and archaeologists with meeting city archaeology policies, current professional standards, and applicable regulatory requirements for a variety of project types. Laurene is co-author of Phoenix's general plan for the treatment of archaeological resources, advisor to the Phoenix Chapter of the Arizona Archaeological Society, and serves on the Tempe Historic Preservation Commission.

Recorded Video Presentation
November 4, 2020 at 6:30 PM

Members will receive a YouTube Link to this presentation by separate email.
Nonmembers: Please preregister so we can send a link. Register by emailing us at lary@pueblogrande.org. A link will be sent to your email address