B. STANDARDS AND RULES GOVERNING ARTWORK:

1. Quality Control: All art displayed for sale is subject to evaluation by the Quality Control representatives throughout the market. The Quality Control representatives may request that any items not meeting the established standards be removed from display. The Quality Control representatives are the sole arbiters of what must be removed. Artists who do not abide by the directives of the Quality Control representative risk losing their status as an invitee to future S'edav Va'aki Museum Foundation (SFMF) Indian Markets (IMs). Additionally, the U.S. Department of the Interior, Arts and Crafts Board will be present on site during the two days of the event to assure that Federal guidelines are being met.
2. Hallmarks: All participating artists must have their hallmark (signature, mark, or stamp) on file with the SVMF IM. This signature, mark or stamp can be submitted electronically or by postal service with application form.
3. Prohibited Work: No imported, manufactured, or mass-produced items, such as mouse pads, coasters and magnets are permitted to be displayed and sold. Artists are allowed only two extensions of their work. Also, not acceptable are works produced with commercial kits, molds, patterns, or prefabricated forms. Christmas ornaments must be individually created, not mass produced.
4. Original Work: All work displayed must be designed and created by the exhibitor. All work must be hand crafted. No dealers or traders are allowed. Tribal guilds or cooperatives may be invited on a periodic basis which will be on an invitation basis only. The artist must be present on-site. Work of other artists regardless of kinship cannot be displayed.
5. Artifacts and Ceremonial Objects: Absolutely no sale or display of prehistoric or culturally sensitive artifacts will be permitted. The Quality Control representative will carefully review and ban any use of the materials, such as raptor feathers or endangered species. Display or sale of ceremonial objects is strictly prohibited.
6. Pottery: Commercially produced pottery, slip molds, and green ware are strictly prohibited. Contemporary pottery forms are acceptable. Hand coiled or wheel thrown works are acceptable. Kiln-fired pots and pots made or decorated with commercial materials must be properly identified.
7. Jewelry: Only handmade jewelry may be sold. Natural turquoise does not need special labeling. Stabilized turquoise and synthetic opal must be properly labeled. Such stabilized turquoise and synthetic opal must be kept separate from the natural stones. No block (turquoise/epoxy resin and dye), fake turquoise, imitation stones, machine made components (except findings) can be used.

Also not allowed are non-American Indian made heishi, stamped fetishes, nickel silver, and liquid silver or plated metals. Tribes of those regions that have historically used it can use German silver.

8. Paintings and Drawings: Paintings, drawings and graphics must be matted, framed, or shrink-wrapped. No wet canvases will be made available for sale. Paintings on canvas may be framed for their protection.

9. Prints: No xerographic-type mechanical reproductions, laser prints or photographs of original artwork are allowed. Limited edition prints signed and numbered may not exceed 750.

10. Weaving: Rugs, blankets, belts, and purses must be handmade. All-natural yarns and dyes are acceptable. Synthetic or acrylic yarn must be properly labeled. No products made from commercial kits or patterns will be permitted.

11. Textiles: Sewing machine work is acceptable. No commercially made clothing, liquid embroidery or products made from kits are allowed.

12. Dolls: Dolls in traditional categories must use materials historically associated with its native culture. Artists are not to display dolls of tribes other than their own tribal affiliation.

13. Bead, Quill, and Leather: No plastic pony beads, or Grand Canyon “string” beads are allowed. Commercially tanned hide work must be labeled.

14. Mixed Media: combines 2 or more of the categories above. Restrictions of each category apply.

15. Diverse Art: Purchased glass beads are allowed. Allowable with disclosure are: nickel and brass beads not made by the artist; rhinestones; commercially manufactured hides and rawhide; and commercially-produced objects that are transformed into a work of art by the hand application of beadwork or quillwork, e.g., tennis shoes, bottles, etc. All decorative stone, shell or metal elements and shell, glass, or metal beads must be properly identified and comply with the standards for Jewelry in (7) above. Not allowed are; plastic or synthetic parts of any kind, e.g., beads, plastic hair pipe, etc.; manufactured, non-Indian made, or die-struck metal charms, buttons, conchos used for ornamental purposes. All sewn items must be designed and sewn by the artist.

16. Open Standards: Work that may defy traditional classification, and even be difficult to understand, but challenges and ultimately broadens the public’s understanding of American Indian art. There are no restrictions except: time-based media not allowed unless an integral part of the artwork and not the dominant media.
